View top results all together or sorted by content type.

The screenshot shows the WestlawNext search results page. At the top, there is a search bar with the query 'Can a municipality be held liable for civil rights violations?' and a dropdown menu set to 'All Federal'. Below the search bar, there are several filters: 'VIEW:' with a list of content types (Cases: 524, Statutes: 45, etc.), 'NARROW:' with a search box for results, and 'Jurisdiction:' with a dropdown set to 'Federal'. The main content area displays a list of cases, with the top result being 'Monell v. Department of Social Services of City of New York'. To the right, there are 'RELATED DOCUMENTS' including 'Secondary Sources' and 'LOCAL GOVERNMENT LIABILITY UNDER SECTION 1983'.

Filter your results by key word, jurisdiction, type of action, law firm, judge, and more.

My Research Folders let you drag-and-drop key documents and text snippets into folders organized by issue, client, or topic, which puts all pertinent information in one place for quicker access later.

Easier searching enables you to choose a jurisdiction, then enter your search however you wish. The system recognizes the format of your query automatically.

Visual Indicators mark if you have opened a document (Already Viewed), saved it to a folder (Folder), or attached personal notes to it (Note) – so you know your research is done.
